

This nautical chart depicts the Boryeong area in South Korea. Key features include:

- Boryeong LNG Terminal (보령 LNG 터미널): Located in the lower right, showing the terminal structure and moorings.
- Wippaeriyeo (위배리여): A small island or peninsula in the lower left, marked with a green area.
- Navigation Aids:
 - Fl(4)Y8s (No. 33): A yellow light with a red flash, located near the top left.
 - Fl(2)G6s (No. 31): A green light with a red flash, located near the center.
 - Q(3)10s: A red light with a white flash, located near the bottom left.
 - Fl(4)Y8s16m8M (No. B): A yellow light with a red flash, located near the Boryeong LNG Terminal.
 - Obstn: Obstruction lights are marked with red dots.
- Depth Soundings: Numerous depth soundings are provided in meters, ranging from 10 to 25 meters.
- Contour Lines: Contour lines are drawn at 10-meter intervals, indicating the seabed topography.
- Scale Bar: A scale bar at the bottom left indicates distances in meters, from 0 to 180 meters.
- Coordinates: The chart is oriented with a coordinate grid, showing 126°29'E longitude.

Chart 3531

36°
25'